

Fun Activities For Your Reading Type

The Lion

You have the confidence of a lion and believe that you are a great reader.

- Be the leader of a book club with your friends.
- Write a fun book review for others to read.
- Tell your class about your favorite book.
- Read something new and different.

The Detective

You always uncover new clues and enjoy learning new things by reading.

- Look up fun facts about the book you're reading.
- Read a true book about something new.
- Try to solve the mystery before the characters do.
- Read about what's happening in the world and talk about it.

The Guardian

You protect your reading time because you believe it is important to read.

- Read a story to a younger sibling or student.
- Read about someone who helped others.
- Help collect books for kids in your community.
- Read true stories about people who changed the world.

The Star

You shine like a star when others celebrate you for reading!

- Write a book review and share it with everyone.
- Read a book everyone is talking about.
- Earn fun badges when you hit your reading goals.
- Be the special 'guest reader' for a day in your class.

The Butterfly

You are a social butterfly and enjoy talking with friends and family about your reading.

- Read the same book as a friend and talk about it.
- Start a fun book club with your buddies.
- Read a book, then watch the movie with your friends.
- Trade a favorite book with a friend and share what you love.

Fun Activities For Your Reading Type

The Climber

You are like a mountain climber scaling a cliff and enjoy books that are hard to read.

- Read a big, exciting book with lots of twists.
- Join a group to talk and debate about cool books.
- Read a mystery and try to guess what happened.
- Pick two famous books and see how they are alike and different.

The Fan

You are the biggest fan of books and like to read for fun.

- Write a new ending for your favorite book.
- Draw a poster or new cover for a book you love.
- Get lost in a book with a fantasy or sci-fi world.
- Create a fan club to talk about your favorite series.

The Closer

You are serious about finishing your reading, especially when it is required for a class or activity.

- Read shorter books to get a quick and easy win.
- Listen to an audiobook while you draw or do chores.
- Challenge yourself to grow a reading streak.
- Make a fun schedule to help you finish your books on time.

The Scholar

You are a serious reading scholar and read to do better in school.

- Read a book about what you're learning in school.
- Keep a notebook of the new words you learn in books.
- Read true books about your favorite subjects.
- Notice how different authors write to help you become a better writer.

The Champion

You are a true competitor who wants to be the best at reading.

- Try to get to the top of the reading leaderboard.
- Challenge yourself by reading a harder book.
- Join a reading trivia game or contest.
- See if you can read more minutes or books than your friends.